

Introductory Sentences

Why are introductory sentences important for a formal essay?

- Hooks your reader
- Introduces the topic
- Serves as a “transition” to your topic- helps the reader understand what they are about to read
- Provides the first impression for the reader
- Shows what type writer you are (are you knowledgeable about the topic? Are you going a precise and to the point writer?)